Georgia-Pacific To Close Bellingham, Wash., Pulp Mill
Copyright (c) 2001 Dow Jones & Company, Inc.

ATLANTA (Dow Jones)—Georgia-Pacific Corp. (GP) plans to permanently close its already-idled Bellingham, Wash., pulp mill, which was temporarily shuttered in December due to high electric power costs stemming from the West Coast energy crisis.

In a press release Friday, Georgia-Pacific said the closure will affect about 420 employees, many of whom have been laid off since December.

The adjacent tissue paper and converting facilities will continue to be operated with temporary generators, by the remaining workforce of about 330, while the company looks for other sources of affordable electric power.

The tissue paper and converting operations have been powered by temporary generators since January.

New York Stock Exchange-listed shares of Georgia-Pacific traded recently at $29.90, up 99 cents, or 3.4%, on composite volume of 896,800 shares. Average daily volume is 1.85 million shares.

All right, let's try this again. I believe last Friday, March 30, 2001, I requested the following:

Message follows:

Could you, by Monday noon, send me your Chapter(s) in the format that I requested on 3/26/01. As an example of what I'd like to see, I am attaching Treasury's latest submission.

We've got to start plugging in where graphics and photographs go in the chapters and seeing it laid out like that will help.

To say the least, I didn't get an overwhelming response. I know that everybody was pushing to get ready for the Principals Meeting on Tuesday. Now that effort is virtually past, let's get back to business. Send those chapters along please.

Charlie
Charlie,

Margot:

Regardless of not having received another round of comments/suggested changes, I'd appreciate it if you would forward the chapters/graphics in the format requested so that we can begin to lay out where graphics/pictures go.

Thanks

We're still (and probably will forever) having difficulty with attachments. Can you send the chapters along to John Fenzel and/or Kjersten Drager and they can forward them to me.

On another topic, can you start working with chapters 1 & 2 and find appropriate photographs to illustrate salient points. We need to get that material identified soon so that people here can start whacking away at it.

Thanks

Charlie
Charlie,

Take a quick look at these and see if this is what Andrew wanted. I can then print out and send up.

Charlie,

Just want to be sure we are on the same page on DOE's NEP tasks.

Sent drafts of DOE-led chapters 3, 6, 7, 8 to WH (in late March) with graphics hand delivered. Waiting for interagency comments. To date, received comments from DOE's EE, EIA, FE on chapter 3. Received revisions from DOE/EE on chapters 6 and 7. Received PC comments on chapter 8.

Electronically sent transmission graphic Andrew Lundquist specifically requested (will send hard copy if desired).

Charlie Smith is working directly with EE and FE to obtain photographs for inclusion in chapters.

Margot
We are getting to the final stages of producing the report. I want to make sure that, if you had an interest in it, have reviewed the draft chapters and have provided comments.

I would appreciate it if you would give me the status of your review of the chapters. Please fill out the short form below and send it back. Thanks.
Jeremy,

I was never asked to do so. I recall that Andrew stated that he and Joe Kelliher were going to cover this one.

As a pointed reminder. All photographs that you are proposing for use in the National Energy Policy Development Group's Report must be submitted in either print, slide, or transparency format. If you don't have access to prints, slides, or transparencies, then you've got to select another image. And if that's the case, we need to know now and we need to know your completion date. A number of you have submitted prints from a digital file and that is not going to work.

I'd like a status by noon, Tuesday, April 10, 2001. Thanks.
